

Sex and relationships education (SRE) briefing

20 January 2016, 1-3pm

Room U, Portcullis House

- What is good quality SRE in a primary school?
- Do children learn how to recognise and report abusive behaviour?
- Why is SRE still not good enough?

Caroline Nokes MP invites you to the Sex Education Forum briefing on Wednesday 20 January 2016 from 1-3pm. This is a chance to hear from young people and experts about what constitutes good quality sex and relationships education (SRE) and the standard of provision in schools in England. Findings from a national survey of over 2000 young people's experiences of SRE will also be shared.

Programme

1.00pm	Welcome from Caroline Nokes MP - Chair of the All Party Parliamentary Group on Body Image and member of the Education Select Committee
1.10pm	Overview of findings from the young people's SRE survey - Lucy Emmerson, Coordinator, Sex Education Forum
1.25pm	Response from young people (from Shropshire and Weymouth)
1.40pm	Response from Anne Peachey, Headteacher, Christ the King Catholic Primary School, Bristol
1.50pm	Response from Jane Held, Independent Chair, Birmingham and Milton Keynes Safeguarding Children Boards
2.00pm	Facilitated question and answer session
2.30pm	Opportunity to network with young people and contributors
3.00pm	Close

The Sex Education Forum is a group of organizations and individuals working together to achieve good quality sex and relationships education for all children and young people. The Sex Education Forum is hosted by National Children's Bureau.