

Joint Conference

Statutory Sex and Relationships Education – getting it right for disabled children and those with SEN

Debating the future direction of policy with practical advice on how to implement high quality SRE in your setting or area.

Tuesday 16th January
Friends House, Central London

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

SRE and PSHE leads from special and mainstream schools

Sexual health services

Special Educational Needs Coordinators

Teaching assistants/pastoral staff

Public health and safeguarding managers

Voluntary and community sector organisations

Influence the government’s thinking on statutory SRE for disabled children and those with SEN

Understand how to deliver high quality SRE for disabled children and those with SEN

Champion the right to good quality SRE for all children and young people

Debate what ‘good’ SRE looks like with parents, professionals and young people themselves

SPEAKERS

Dame Christine Lenehan
Director, Council for Disabled Children

David Stewart OBE DL
Head Teacher, Oak Field School and Sports College

Richard Vaughn
Deputy Director, Department for Education

Lesley Kerr-Edwards
Director, Image in Action

Q+A and panel discussion with the speakers

‘What opportunities does the new legislation present for disabled pupils and those with SEN?’

WORKSHOPS

1 Sex, Relationships and Making Choices in A Changing World: An accessible and interactive workshop
Face Front Inclusive Theatre

2 Teaching consent: Practical strategies for small group work with pupils with MLD
Sarah Duignan, Image in Action

3 Boundaries in 1:1 work: Developing safe learning environments for talking about sex
Claire Lightley, the sexual health charity FPA

4 The home/school partnership: Talking about sexuality with parents and carers of pupils

CLICK TO BOOK YOUR PLACE

Tickets £199.00

For further information please email Tristan Shorrock at tshorrock@ncb.org.uk
020 7843 6303

Click to book your place